

to Mr. Celly
6 August 1975

Attached is an alphabetical listing of all military retirees employed by the CIA. The personnel records indicate that individuals listed in this group have 20 or more years of active military service and should be receiving military retired pay. Regular officers are identified by an asterisk, and a portion of their military retired pay is forfeited when they are employed as civilians by the United States Government.

The following is the breakout by military service:

United States Air Force (USAF) -	50
United States Army (USA) - (Regular Army)	18
Army of the United States (AUS) - (Served on extended active duty, technically as reserve officers, for 20 years or more.)	25
United States Navy (USN) -	14
United States Marine Corps - (USMC)	3
Total retired military officers serving as civilians as of 5 August 1975:	110
